About C4G

The Centre for Girls is a program of The Helen Gordon Davis Centre for Women, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization in Tampa. The Centre for Girls offers innovative programming during after-school hours and a summer camp that includes fine arts, ceramics, fashion, dance, and STEM-based instruction to girls, ages 5-14.

The Centre for Girls and its partners strategically increase girls' access to services and provide them with a safe place to spend time, learn skills, make friends, and interact with caring adults.

Are you looking for an after-school program that stimulates your child's interests? Builds her confidence and self-esteem?

Afterschool Programs

After-School Hours:

Monday-Friday 2:30 pm-6 pm

Thanks to a generous sponsorship from The Children's Board of Hillsborough County, we can offer FREE programming (Arts-Integrated Tutoring, Girls Circle, and Robotics) and FREE transportation from local schools for girls in 6th,7th, and 8th grades.

Girls 16 and up can volunteer with us for community service hours. If volunteering for 10 or more hours a background screening is required.

Young Risers

Every month a middle school girl from our program is chosen to be Young Riser of the month. This award is presented to the girl who best exemplifies the values and principles of the Centre for Girls at home, school, and in the community!

Summer Camp

Check back here for information on our 2019 Summer Camp session including pricing and enrollment information.

In the mean time, check out this gallery of last summer's camp activities.
